Membership and Attendance Requirements 2010-2011 --All Ensembles

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

Weekly attendance at rehearsals is essential in order to be a member of the San Diego Youth Symphony. Each musician and their family are given a list of rehearsal dates, concert dates and sectional dates for the year. Before final acceptance into the orchestra, each musician must agree to all attendance and behavior guidelines.

- 1) No more than three excused absences are allowed during any one-concert preparation period (September to the Winter concert and January through the June concert). In order for an absence to be excused, musicians must sign the Request for Absence Book at least two weeks prior to the absence date. Or a request for absence must be submitted to the Youth Symphony office at least two weeks prior to the absence date via email to dpeterson@sdys.org. Only in cases of sudden illness or emergency should an absence be reported to the office by telephone at (619) 233-3232. The musician will be asked to send a follow-up email, fax or written form. Failure to sign in at rehearsal will result in an unexcused absence. The only exception to the three-absence rule will be for musicians who participate in their school marching band programs who have competitions on Saturdays in the fall, band festivals in the spring, college auditions or a college entrance exam. These events will be excused beyond three absences provided that they are not requests to miss a concert. Students in marching band programs are required to submit their marching band schedule by the first rehearsal
- 2) Any musician with two unexcused absences during the year will be dismissed from the ensemble and program. An unexcused absence is any non-emergency absence that is not reported to the orchestra coordinator prior to the beginning of the rehearsal. Excessive non-emergency requests reported prior to rehearsal but less than two weeks in advance may be counted as unexcused. Final determination regarding dismissal from the ensembles will be made by the Artistic Director and President/CEO.
- 3) A musician who misses a dress rehearsal will forfeit participation in that concert unless the absence is due to illness, family emergency, graduation, college entrance exam or is for mandatory school band or orchestra performance for which the student receives an academic grade. Under special circumstances the conductor may excuse a student from dress rehearsal for reasons other than those listed above. To request an absence from a dress rehearsal for a school performance, you must notify Orchestra Coordinator at dpeterson@sdys.org at least one month in advance. Final determination regarding eligibility or in-eligibility to perform on a concert due to missing a dress rehearsal will be made by the Artistic Director and President/CEO.
- 4) A musician who misses a concert for any reason other than severe illness or family emergency will forfeit their membership in the ensemble. Final determination regarding dismissal from the ensembles will be made by the Artistic Director and President/CEO.
- 5) Any musician who is excessively tardy or requests excessive early departures from rehearsal may forfeit their membership in the ensemble. Excessive is defined as more than three tardies or early departures during any one-concert preparation period (September to the Winter concert and January through the June concert). Three tardies or leave early departures will be counted as one absence. Final determination regarding dismissal from the ensembles will be made by the Artistic Director and President/CEO.
- 6) All musicians are required to stay for the duration of each concert they participate in. If a student leaves early from the concert it will count as one unexcused absence. This is an important part of the educational process, we ask that students listen and encourage other musicians from within our program during concerts.

CONDUCT AND BEHAVIOR

- 1) Any musician who exhibits inappropriate behavior at Youth Symphony rehearsals, concerts, or activities jeopardizes their good standing in the orchestra. Examples include, but are not limited to, disrespect towards other musicians or adults, failure to follow instructions, verbal or physical threats towards others, horseplay, inappropriate physical contact with others, inappropriate language, or any other behavior that undermines the integrity of the ensemble. Inappropriate conduct may result in immediate forfeiture of membership in the ensemble. Final determination regarding dismissal from the ensembles will be made by the Artistic Director and President/CEO.
- 2) The San Diego Youth Symphony and Conservatory maintains a drug-free workplace and drug use by student or adult will not be tolerated and will result in student dismissal from the program. Adults who smoke should do so away from the rehearsal rooms as a courtesy to our students, staff, and others viewing the rehearsal; however, smoking in Balboa Park is prohibited and may result in fines imposed by city staff.

I have read, understand and agree to all attendance and conduct guidelines stated above. My signature below constitutes full acceptance of these policies. I understand that failure to abide by these policies will result in actions as defined above.
